The Daily Sentinel.

VOL. III. RALEIGH, N. C., MONDAY, JUNE 8, 1868. NO. 258.

DAILY SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, PROPRIETOR.

From the National Intelligencer.

RADICAL RULE.

The city of Washington, the capital of a great nation of freemen, presents to-day to the country and to the world a sad picture of social disorder, on account simply of the reputed success of a candidate of the Radical negro party for the Mayoralty. Murder and rapine are rife. These crimes are perpetrated by negro mobs, and the police are powerless to prevent the commission of these outrages, or to arrest the offenders.—Even when taken in the act they are snatched by a negro mob from the hands of the officers of the peace, and deliberately arrest or identification. By their fruits shall they be judged. The pretended victory of the Radical negro party is hardly forty-eight hours old, and we have to record in our columns brutal outrages, felonious house breakings by an infuriated mob, murderous assaults without provocation upon unoffending citizens, and outrages innumerable.—They are only a tithe of what has been reported to us, and we include only those which have been properly vouched for by reliable witnesses. If we were to publish the list reported otherwise, whole columns might be filled with the accounts of these outrages. But these will suffice to show what is to be expected from "Radical rule"—law breaking, murder, rapine, robbery, and violence, without stint and without punishment.

In addition to the death of one of the victims of the negro riot of Friday night last, returning from a Radical meeting at the City Hall, when a shoe-store was sacked merely for plunder, and its occupants beaten so severely that one of them has since died, we find recorded the murder by negroes, on Tuesday night, after their heat of inflammatory speeches from Forney, Bowen and Company, of one poor victim of their insane wrath upon the most public avenue of the city; the severe wounding and beating of several others; the wanton sacking of drug stores, restaurants and groceries, wherever liquor was supposed to be had; and the reported murder of three other unoffending white men in various parts of the city. The residences of Conservative private citizens and Conservative judges of the election were visited with violence by this mob of irresponsible negroes, intoxicated with the liquor from the stores they had sacked, and infuriated by the incendiary speeches made to them by white men, who dared not participate in the "playful vagaries" of their ignorant dupes, and executors of the incendiarism they had inculcated. White ladies who dared to show themselves at their windows were subjected to the foulest abuse, and even the street cars were assailed with showers of stones and missiles.

The negroes were armed with clubs, razors, knives, and pistols, and with them marched whole companies armed with muskets. They made night hideous with their yells, and defied the power of the police.—The mob yelled for Grant and Colfax, while robbing, plundering, and murdering. Grant and Colfax is the watchword of these "demons let loose." Grant and Colfax is all they know, except the local name of Bowen. Grant and Colfax and Bowen will be, by this community, held responsible for all the terrible outrages committed by their mob of negro supporters, who rush from a Grant and Colfax ratification meeting to rapine and murder, as an exemplification of the liberty they expect to enjoy under such leaders.

The city of Washington has been made, by the Radical majority in Congress, a political experimental garden. In the results of the last few days we have an evidence of the consequences of Congressional rule, and Grant and Colfax as the nominees of negro equality Radicalism.

THE "SEVENTEEN-YEAR LOCUSTS."

Apropos to the reports which reach us, from the various parts of the State, that this insect has made its periodical re-appearance, the following, from the Baltimore Sun, will be of interest:

"The seventeen-year locusts, which are so common, in particular seasons, in some parts of this country, and which made their last appearance in this region in the spring of 1851, are again showing themselves. Although they appear about every seventeen years, it is thought probable that the periods of their return vary according to the heat of the climate and other circumstances. However, the dates of their two last appearances corresponded very nearly, according to a statement which appeared in the York (Pa.) Democrat, upon the authority of Mr. Daniel Lehman, an old resident of York, who seems to have made the habits of this species of locusts a special study, (as did formerly the late Gideon B. Smith, of this city,) and has kept a record of the last three periods of their appearance. He says that they appeared in 1817, on the 22d day of May; in 1834, about the same time, and in 1851, on the 26th of May. He has also ascertained that many of them have died in the ground this spring on account of the frequent rains, and that most of them now are now about five inches below the surface of the earth, their protracted stay being attributed to the continued wet weather. These insects emerge from the ground towards the end of April, and on their first coming out are in the pupa state, but the perfect fly soon after makes its appearance. They begin to fly eggs about the end of May, which are deposited in the tender twigs of trees, and as soon as the young attain their growth, in the grub state, they fall to the ground, and make their way two or three feet underneath the surface, in order to undergo their change into the pupa form, after which last transformation they are found in great numbers over large districts of country. Mr. Lehman claims to have ascertained by experiments that they never descend further than six feet into the earth, and that the eggs must come in contact with the earth before they will advance towards life. In some places they have been known to penetrate from their underground dwelling between the bricks of a pavement. They are generally found in the woods and shaded places, not in the open fields, and notwithstanding the common idea that they are injurious to vegetation, it appears from high authority that they are not so, except from the damage done by the female in depositing her eggs. The female locusts have stings, which, when hurled or irritated, they use with fatal effect. Several persons were killed in Bucks county, Pennsylvania, by locust stings in 1851, and one or two children starving, who were cured by cutting live chickens in half and applying their warm flesh to the place punctured.—Locusts are a favorite food of hogs, squirrels, and some of the larger birds, and are a favorite dish with the Indians when fried. These remarks apply particularly to the seventeen year locusts, there being many other species in the United States, though this is the most remarkable. Several entomologists have included locusts and American grasshoppers under the generic name "locusts."

The grasshoppers have sometimes proved very destructive in their visitations to some parts of the country, both east and west, and in New England, at one time, they not only ate up all the grass in the fields, but actually attacked clothing and fences. It is believed by some, however, that most of the devastation attributed to grasshoppers really belongs to locusts, and most often to the red-legged species, which have proved specially destructive to the grass of salt meadows, clover, corn and vegetables.—They were so abundant in Northern New England towards the middle of the eighteenth century that days of fasting and prayer were appointed on account of the calamity. Various methods have been resorted to to check the ravages of locusts, such as collecting the eggs, which may easily be turned out of the ground, and taking the grown locusts by means of cloths and nets spread over the fields, which is the means now being employed by Brigham Young and his saints in their efforts to get rid of the pest in Utah. But, happily for our country, none of these curses on this continent are to be compared to that fearful scourge, the migratory locusts, which abound in Syria, Egypt, and almost all the south of Asia and southern Europe, whence they have sometimes spread even to England and northern Europe, darkening the air by their massiness, and destroying every trace of vegetation. Our seventeen-year locusts, however—those which are now showing themselves to a more or less extent—are comparatively harmless, and we have never heard of their greatly injuring the crops of the husbandman, though often filling the woods. At present we learn that they are in great numbers in some parts of Baltimore county, and in some wheat fields are on almost every stalk in a pupa state, and also among the clover, etc."

AGENTS WANTED FOR THE OFFICIAL HISTORY OF THE WAR,
ITS CAUSES, CHARACTER, CONDUCT AND RESULTS.
By HON. ALEXANDER H. STEPHENS.
A BOOK FOR ALL SECTIONS AND ALL PARTIES.

THIS GREAT WORK PRESENTS THE ONLY complete and impartial analysis of the causes of the War yet published, and gives those interior lights and shadows of the great conflict only known to those high officers who watched the flood-tide of revolution from its fountain springs, and which were so accessible to Mr. Stephens, from his position as second officer of the Confederacy.

To a public that has been surfeited with APPARENTLY SIMILAR PRODUCTIONS, we promise a charge of fare both agreeable and salutary, and an intellectual treat of the highest order. The Great American War has AT LAST found a historian worthy of its importance, and at whose hands it will receive that moderate, candid and impartial treatment which truth and justice so urgently demand.

The intense desire everywhere manifested to obtain this work, its official character and ready sale, combined with an increased commission, make it the best subscription book ever published.

One Agent in Easton, Pa., reports 72 subscribers in three days.

One in Memphis, Tenn., 106 subscribers in five days.

One in Boston, Mass., 103 subscribers in four days.

Send for Circulars and see our terms, and a full description of the work, with Press notices of advance sheets &c. Address

CHIEF-JUSTICE CHASE.

The admirers of Judge Chase are evidently pressing his claims very strongly for a nomination for the Presidency. Many persons in the South confess to a considerable softening towards the Chief-Justice, arising from the honorable and high-toned course he pursued on the impeachment trial. While any exhibition, on the part of any one hitherto identified with the Republican or Radical party, favorable to the maintenance of the Constitution and of law, and opposed to the revolutionary conduct and designs of the Radical party, invariably changes the feelings and sympathies of Conservative men towards him, and renders them willing to concede to him patriotic feelings and purposes, yet this must not be regarded as an evidence that the Conservative people of the land are ready to abandon the principles which they believe essential to the maintenance of a just and good government, and support men for high position, whose known principles are inimical to this end.

Judge Chase may be regarded as a leader of a party, which has sought to engraft, upon the fundamental character of this government, the fanatical idea of the justice and propriety of admitting the civil and political equality of all the varieties of the human race. Moreover, he holds, in order to the maintenance of this mutual and inherent equality, the right to suffrage of all men. To make the idea still more plausible and acceptable to conservative men, it is frequently called "manhood suffrage," or "impartial suffrage," and still more, he contends for "universal suffrage and universal amnesty." We believe the time has fully arrived when every man, charged with political "crime" in connection with the late war, should be fully and freely forgiven. It is neither magnanimous, humane nor just, at this late period, for the government to seek for the blood or political degradation of any of its citizens. But to purchase such an immunity, at the sacrifice of those safeguards to liberty and right which alone can be rendered certain by confining the elective franchise to the virtuous and intelligent, may only change the status of the whites from one of suspected "loyalty" to one of abject slavery. Of the two they would prefer the former.

We believe that the higher offices of the nation should be placed in the hands of men, whose views are in accord with the virtue, the intelligence and the patriotism of the nation, and whose administration of the government, as it came from the hands of the fathers of the Republic, would resist any temptation to incorporate upon the system offensive and untried measures or principles, which certainly tend to its destruction.

Radicalism, in all its forms, is a fungus upon American institutions—a gangrene, which, if not checked speedily, must eat out the vitals of the Republic. As between Judge Chase and General Grant, we should entirely prefer the former to the latter, but much is yet needed to satisfy us that it would be wise, or consistent, or sound policy, to adhere to him as a deliberate choice.

RECONSTRUCTION HANGS FIRE.—The Congressional Radicals seem not to be satisfied with the work of the "trooly loil," or with their own. By fraud and deception, they have forced new Constitutions upon the several States, which are loathsome to the intelligent whites of the South, by which it would seem that they have a bill of sale for the Radical party, and yet they are greatly in doubt whether the thing will work to their advantage. Some are honest enough to admit that their great concern is, not to give the Southern people peace and quiet and to remove the obstructions to their enterprise and chances of living, but to secure their votes beyond doubt for Grant and Colfax.

They may well be in doubt. The Radical Presidential ticket presents no bouquet of roses to the Southern people. They neither have admiration for the ability or characters of the men, nor for the principles of the party, if it has any, whose candidates they are. With anything like a fair election in the South, several of the States, at least, will give a full vote and a majority for any true men who may be brought out by the National Democrats.

Any attempt, on the part of Congress, to introduce into the new Constitutions any further restriction upon the rights of the people, or to amend any of them, may, in the estimation of the people, vitiate them altogether, and may lead to a speedy purpose to adopt such Constitutions as the people require. If the new regime should operate as prejudicially to the interests of the people as we believe it will, a change will be demanded.

THE "RADIUS OF INFLUENCE."—This has been variously defined, but we think that we have hit upon the exact illustration of it: A man who was steeped in secession before the war, and was a (theoretical) Yankee exterminator during the war, denouncing Northern men, who sustained the government all through the struggle, or who actually fought in the Union armies, as "Copperheads," because they refuse to bow the knee to Radicalism! And yet we see and hear this every day. These fellows have the cheek of the "old boy" himself.

WOOLLEY is still confined in the basement of the Capitol at Washington. They have put him on plain food. What a glorious old inquisitor Beast Butler would have made in the days of the Inquisition!

The Seventy-First Commencement at the University of North Carolina.

JUNE FOURTH, 1868.

One of the late graduates at the University, in an oration, marked by a maturity of thought and felicity of expression rarely observed on such an occasion, set forth the power and glory of the Union, that once more binds together all who live from Maine to Texas, from Cape Hatteras to Cape Flattery. Another, with a sincerity that carried his words deep into the hearts of his hearers, held up for admiration the virtues of the Old North State. A third, with much enthusiasm, claimed for "Old Orange" a high position in the esteem of her sister counties. A fourth orator, calling attention to the attractions of Chapel Hill, would have been a very proper companion to these interesting essays. It might have told us of the early times at the University—their simplicity and their hardships forming a striking contrast with the complicated signs of the present,—of the fathers who founded the University, their honors and their might,—of the birth place of Senator Haywood, of the home of Senator Benton, of the humble residence of Rochester, the founder of a city full of palaces,—of the wise, firm, far-seeing and patriotic President Caldwell,—of the learned men associated with him in the Faculty of the University, and of the famous men whom they taught and trained, men honored by their fellow-men as worthy of their utmost confidence as President, Bishop and Governor, and Judge, and Legislator, and Preacher, and Teacher, at home, and as representatives of their country's glory abroad. It is no wonder that the wise fathers, and brave sons and fair daughters of our land love to attend Commencement at the University at Chapel Hill, in Orange County, North Carolina, one of the United States of America.

On Tuesday last, after the Seniors, as their predecessors had often done before, had assured the Examining Committee that they had been largely, minutely and thoroughly taught what are the laws of nations, and what the Constitution of their own country,—and after the Societies had welcomed to their final sessions their honorary members, the following declamations by members of the Freshman Class gave opportunities for the display of force and grace by the speakers, and of taste and Society pride by the hearers:

I. Adams and Jefferson, Everett.
SAMUEL L PATTERSON, Caldwell County.

II. Fall of Poland, Shelly.
W PLUMMER BATCHELOR, Raleigh.

III. Pocahontas, Hall.
SAMUEL M DAVIDSON, Charlotte.

IV. In favor of permitting the British refugees to return to the U. S., Henry.
ANDREW J BRITTON, Northampton County.

V. National Respect, Beman.
JOHN K GIBSON, Richmond County.

VI. National Glory, Rivers.
ROBERT A JOHNSTON, Richmond County.

Those who criticized most closely decided that Messrs. Britton and Gibson were the most worthy of praise, although Gov. Seymour declared that he had, at no time and in no place, seen more natural or appropriate declamations by Freshmen or Sophmores.

On Wednesday morning, the Hon. Thos. Henry Seymour, lately Governor of Connecticut, was introduced to an intelligent audience by Senior Busbee, as the orator of the day on the part of the Philanthropic Society. After a few words, gracefully returning thanks for the honor thus conferred on him, and expressing his gratification at renewing his intercourse with companions in the joyous contests of boyhood and in the deadly strifes on the plains of Mexico, he announced, as his subject, "Government, its origin and forms, together with its functions and dangers." As to its origin, it was the inevitable expression of an instinct of humanity whenever individuals attempted to form a society. Men feel, because they are men, and not brutes, that they ought to live together, for and with each other, and that unity can be attained only by subordination. But, while the origin of Government was thus necessary, its forms have always been contingent, dependent on the accidents of time and place. Mankind may not have determined, by experience, the form which is most powerful and permanent in securing liberty and sympathy, among its rulers and subjects at home, for safety and honor for them abroad. But they have proved by repeated and always bitter experiences, that an oligarchy is the very worst. So, also, history demonstrates that mankind is gradually comprehending the proper functions of Government, the attaining and the maintaining of the largest happiness of the greatest number. As men are realizing the truth of revelation, that they ought to love and not hate one another, so also Governments are discovering that they should cultivate for themselves the emotion of love as well as that of fear. Thus will the dangers to and from Governments be avoided or removed. These have their roots in selfishness, as manifested in the want of sympathy among those who are governed, as well as between them and their rulers, in their reluctance to conform themselves to the discoveries of experience, and in their contracting big debts and maintaining big armies.

Gov. Seymour has not a commanding presence, his voice is not strong, nor is his manner oratorical. But he seems to love the truth, whether speculative or practical, and to bow before its decisions with great reverence. It was delightful to follow him apart from the mad and maddening scenes of party strife, and contemplate the grand principles that underlie them as they appeared in his numerous and apt illustrations. Where there is no order there can be no discord. Progress necessitates resistance.—The force that binds the planets to the sun now makes them appear in this place and now in that; it makes us confident in the stability of the system, while it displaces every plane and crooks every path in the firmament. Such is the condition, such the experience of humanity, while it moves onward to realize the idea of Government.—While listening to the patriotic counsels of Gov. Seymour, and observing under his guidance "rerum causas," one felt like he who sounds the depths of some placid stream, forgetful that its waters are hurrying to engage in, nay, to be the cause of, the incessant and terrific tumults of the ocean, where many waters meet. The waves may lift up their voices on high, but to the philosophic ear they only proclaim "est modus in rebus certiqua fines." "The Lord on high is mightier than the noise of many waters; yea, than the mighty waves of the sea."

In presence, voice and manner, the orator for Commencement presented a striking contrast to the preacher for Commencement,—the Rev. Mr. Moran, of the N. C. Conference. His manly form, deep and rich voice and vigorous and graceful action, enabled him to secure, for an unusual length of time, the thoughtful attention of a large and intelligent audience to a rare, subtle and broad generalization concerning the dealings of our God with His creatures—a generalization that clearly possessed the marks of what is evidently the favorite philosophy of its author, that of Sir Wm. Hamilton. Its breadth and its depth were in inverse ratio, most simple and comprehensive. The doctrine of his sermon to the Seniors was drawn from Eph. 1: 10: "That in the dispensation of the fullness of times he might gather together in one all things in Christ, both which are in Heaven and in earth."—The object of the learned divine was to gratify the instinctive desire of the human mind to perceive unity in the midst of diversity, an end and a purpose all through the most complicated and wide spread activities, and demonstrate that the revelation of the glory of God in the face of the Lord Jesus Christ has ever been, as a matter of fact in history, the centre around which all the dealings of our God with the children of Adam have ever revolved. This unity of design is manifest as well in the time, as in the nature and results, of that revelation. Not only conscience within and the law without, but also history, as well that recorded in rocks as that read in books, is an ever present paidagogos, always ready to lead men to Christ. As a wise, and loving and enthusiastic teacher adapts his teachings to the aptness and condition of his pupil, so has God "at sundry times and in divers manners" taught humanity that Christ Jesus is the only light to the Gentiles as He is the only glory of His people Israel. The obscure mythology of the Pagan, that "crops out" through the surface of his gross idolatry,—the transcendental faith of the Egyptian, that moulded the strange forms of his temples,—the polished philosophy of the Greek, that controls and refines the teachings of the wise,—the organizing energy of the Roman that showed men how to govern,—the speculations of medieval school men and the discoveries of modern science but re echo from every side the voice of Jewish type and sacrifice and prophecy, that it is the purpose and plan of Heaven to reconcile all things to itself by Jehovah Jesus.—And let all the world say AMEN. It has been a matter of controversy whether the proper method of discovery is of the general from the specific, of the law from the fact, or, the inverse method, that of the general from the particular, of the principle from the instance. Of this question much has been said and doubtless much will still be said on both sides. But of one assertion there should be no doubt, that if the eloquent preacher of last Wednesday shall have lodged within the minds of those who asked for his sacred teachings a regulative force that will give tone and temper to their readings of history, their conclusions in Science and their activities as guides to their fellow men, a form that shall declare them Christians in the inner sense of that title, he will not have striven in vain in a work which was evidently to him a labor of love.

Those who got up unwearied from the deep researches of the orator and got down undizzied from the high speculations of the divine, must have felt at ease while they listened at night to the following declamations from members of the Sophomore Class:

The Evil of Infidelity, Phillips.
W JAMES McKAY, Harnett County.

On Being Found Guilty of High Treason, Emmet,
HENRY M. SHAW, Currituck County.

Radical Reform, Charles Phillips.
WILLIAM BUCHANAN, Richmond County.

The South, Miller.
GEORGE T. WINSTON, Windsor.

Union of England and Scotland, Belhaven.
REUBEN C. SHORTER, Alabama.

Defence of the Irish Church, Phillips.
JOHN W. PHILLIPS. Edgecombe County.

Clarence's Dream. Shakspeare.
CHARLES E. FRENCH, Wilmington.

Demosthenes Denounced, Aeschines.
EDGAR LEARY, Oxford.

On the Crisis, Wilkerson.
CHARLES A. REYNOLDS, Leaksville.

The Men of the Ranks, Wise.
NELSON H. FEREBEE. Camden County.

The United States, Brown.
JOSEPH K. RANKIN, Lenoir.

Andrew Johnson, Groesbeck.
JAMES B. YELLOWLEY, Greenville.

These were unusually attractive efforts, displaying good sense, good taste and careful training. When people listen well and long, it is not unreasonable to conclude that they have something which in manner or in matter is worth listening to. Messrs. McKay, Buchanan, Winston, French, Leary and Ferebee were judged to be worthy of marked commendation. Good sense is all the more powerful for being well said.

Of course Thursday is the great day of Commencement week. This is the day for which Seniors have longed and Mothers have left farm and family—the day for which sisters and sweethearts have reserved their brightest smiles and richest dresses.—And the class which on this Thursday received their diplomas, deserved all the praise that they received in abundance from old and young, from learned and honored, and wise and fair. Let their names be recorded and read in the changeless tongue of

Ancient Rome:

Julius Shirley Barlow
Gulielmus Hyslop Sumner Burgwyn
Fabius Haywood Busbee
Gulielmus Harrison Craige
Jacobus Gulielmus Davis
Carolus Fetter.
Augustus Washington Graham
Georgius Washington Graham
Robertus Davidson Graham
Jacobus Warren Harper
Gulielmus DeWitt Horner
Gulielmus Clarence Jones
Georgius Gray Latta
Thomas Alexander McNeill
Paulus Barringer Means
Robertus Eugenius Lindsay Morehead
Gulielmus Simpson Pearson
Johannes Edwin Purcell
Isaac Richison Strayhorn
Jacobus Alexander Watson

The honored orators of this honorable class were the following:

ORATION—Latin Salutatory—William H S Burgwyn, Northampton County.

ORATION—Pro Patria—Eugene Morehead, Greensborough.

ORATION—Thoughts, not Swords, Rule the World—Charles Fetter, Chapel Hill.

ORATION—Andrew Jackson—W Clarence Jones, Alabama.

ORATION—Peter the Great—Augustus W Graham, Hillsborough.

ORATION—Effects of the Reformation—William D Horner, Granville County.

ORATION—Orange County—Ike R Strayhorn, Hillsborough.

ORATION—Die Macht Der Musik—James W Harper, Lenoir County.

ORATION—Poland—Paul Barringer Means, Cabarrus County.

ORATION—Constitution and the Union—William S Pearson, Morganton.

VALEDICTORY ORATION—Fabius Haywood Busbee, Raleigh.

Those whom for three years this class taught to expect efforts of more than usual excellence were not disappointed, and they who were comparatively strangers expressed themselves as entirely satisfied, that the exhibition was one rarely if ever surpassed.—The Salutatory was pronounced with singular dignity and propriety and the Valedictory delighted every body. One young lady declared that she was sure that Latin is the language of love, and another young lady has not, and, we hope, will not let the Valedictorian say good bye. A venerable Virginian was saved from exploding at Mr. Morehead's speech by not having one drop of North Carolina blood in him, and the artillery man was applauded for resolving to fight hereafter with thoughts that burn instead of swords that cut. What was understood was all so good, that the audience took for granted that the German speech had sound sense in it too. The youngest sons of the University are very far from being her feeblest. May their light be as that of the rising sun, to grow brighter till the perfect day!

Besides these twenty Bachelors out of undergraduates the Senatus Academicus made eleven of their Bachelors Masters of Arts, viz: T S Armistead, J T Gilmer, F H Haywood, W J King, H A London, Jr., T S Scales, G Slover, R S Tucker, W G Twitty, A Van Wyck and W R Webb.

It conferred the degree of A B, causa honoris, on W N Mebane and and L A T Jobe, formerly students at the University and now teachers of classical schools, and the degree of A M, causa honoris, on E B Haywood, M D, of Raleigh, and on W S Pettigrew, Esq., of N C.

The degree of LL B was conferred on A W Rieger, Esq., of Beaufort, N C, a graduate of the Law Department of the University.

The degree of D D was conferred on the Rev C Phillips, Prof. of Math. in our University, on the Rev T H Pritchard, of Raleigh, and on the Rev A A Watson, of Wilmington.

The degree of LL D was conferred on B F Moore, Esq., of N C, and the Hon T H Seymour, of Connecticut.

The twenty graduates had among them representatives from seven different Freshmen classes in the University, the earliest dating from 1858 and the last from 1864.—Only one, Mr J A Watson, of Chapel Hill, was present at the eight successive examinations of a class in its regular course.—Mr. Busbee never failed in reaching after the highest honors for scholarship at his eight examinations, although they were not all the examinations of the Freshman class of 1864.

The first distinction in this class was assigned to Messrs Burgwyn, Busbee and Morehead. To Mr. Busbee was given the first choice of speeches and the second to Mr. Burgwyn.

The second distinction was assigned in the order of their names to Messrs Harper, Pearson and Graham.

The third to Messrs Fetter, Horner, Jones, Means and Strayhorn.

Messrs Burgwyn, Fetter, Harper, Horner, Jones and McNeill were absent from no duty during their Senior year. Mr. Burgwyn was absent but three times in three years.

The Faculty declared in their report to the Trustees that in years, maturity of intellect and extent of attainments, this class is more than an average with its predecessors.

Among the twelve Juniors, Messrs Porter, of Tarboro', and Webb, of Alamance county, obtained the first distinction in scholarship. Messrs. Graham, Murchison and Rose the second, and Mr. Bitting, the third. Mr. Cowper was considered a first rate scholar in all the departments but Mathematics.

Five out of the twelve members of this class were absent from no duty during their Junior year, viz: Messrs. Bitting, Graham, Maverick, Murchison and Porter.

The first mite men among the Sophomores were Messrs J Battle, R H Graves, Jr., and R H Lewis. Those of the second rank were Messrs Buchanan and Leary. The third miters were Messrs. French, Malloy and Sloan.

Mr. G T Winston obtained the first distinction and Messrs Anderson and Lindsay the second in all the departments but Mathematics. Mr Yellowley, the second in the Bible, French and Greek, and the third in Latin.

The third distinction in Mathematics was awarded to Mr. C. S. Reynolds.

Seven of the twenty-two Sophomores were absent from no duty during the year, viz: Messrs. Battle, Cook, Leary, Malloy, McKay, Rankin and Shaw. Mr. Buchanan has never been absent when it was in his power to attend.

Among the Freshmen, Mr. Britton was declared first in scholarship. The second distinction was assigned to Messrs. Crocker, Davidson and Gibson, and the third to Messrs. Johnson and Vinson.

Mr. Batchelor secured the second distinction in Mathematics.

Messrs. Gibson, Johnson and Patterson were absent from no duty during the year and Mr. Vinson but twice and then on account of sickness.

So closed the sayings and doings in Girard Hall. What was said and done in the Ball Room is reported to have been equally as brilliant and pleasing.

The Marshals, who for once were of the Senior Class, of course did their duty so as to be a model to all predecessors and successors, viz: Messrs. Morehead, Marshal, and Messrs Harper, G. Graham and Strayhorn.

ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

OF HARTFORD, CONN.

ASSETS, $9,000,000.

No. POLICIES 52,700.

DIVISIBLE SURPLUS $1,884,768,51.

DIVIDENDS, 50 per cent.

In these days of competition between Life Insurance Companies, much is said by rival Agents, each claiming the Company he represents to be the best. Without saying anything in disparagement of any Company, or, by simple assertion, anything in the favor, the ÆTNA begs leave to refer to the annexed table, compiled from the official and sworn statements of twenty of the largest Companies in America, made to the Insurance Commissioners of the State of New York. The table shows the ratio of expense to each $100 received by each Company, for the three years ending January 1, 1868.

It will be seen that the expenses of the Ætna are much lower than any other Company; and, after the average is struck, the Ætna, in 1865, saved $10.41 out of each $100 received—more than the average; in 1866, $7.17, and in 1867, $4.90. The receipts of the Ætna were, in 1865, $1,650,309; in 1866, $3,522,376, and in 1867, $7,129,447. Consequently, its savings in the three years were $677,939-39, to which add 7 per cent. interest to July 1, 1868: $120,287.64, making a grand total of $797,227.03 saved over the average of all other Companies.

This is the measure of success, as applied by the Hon Elihu Wright, the greatest of American actuaries, to all Companies, and simply means that the Company whose RATIO of expense to its income is the least, is the best able to pay large dividends to its policy holders. That the Ætna is that Company, these comparisons of official statements plainly show.

Official Statement showing the Expenses and Losses by the Twenty Largest Insurance Companies in America.

PHŒNIX MUTUAL

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

EDSON FESSENDEN, President. JAMES F. BURNS, Secretary.

IN PRESENTING THE CLAIMS OF THE PHŒNIX MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, to the people of North Carolina, the Agent invites their attention to the following statements:

1. It is a Mutual Company, the profits being divided among the insured.
2. Its insured are allowed to travel and reside in any part of the United States and Europe, at all seasons of the year.
3. Its dividends have averaged 50 per cent yearly, and are payable on the amount of premium paid by the insured.
4. Its policies are all NON-FORFEITING.
5. Its losses have been met by the annual interest received alone,—and a surplus of interest left over to swell the general fund belonging to the insured.
6. It has paid over $500,000 of losses, and NEVER CONTESTED A CLAIM.
7. Its rates of assurance are as cheap as any Company doing a SAFE business.
8. IT WILL NOT INSURE AN UNSOUND LIFE.
9. One half the premium will be received in the note of the insured—which note, in case of death, is NEVER deducted from the face of the policy.
10. IT HAS NO CONNECTION WITH FIRE INSURANCE.

Relative character of the Companies operating in North Carolina, as to their Assets and Liabilities, taken from the New York Insurance Report for the year 1867, which is the last report—showing how much of Assets each Company has to meet each dollar of Liability:

PHŒNIX MUTUAL	$1 74
ÆTNA	1 31
BROOKLYN	1 13
CONNECTICUT MUTUAL	1 05
EQUITABLE	1 24
MANHATTAN	1 43

The PHŒNIX MUTUAL offers peculiar inducements to citizens of the Southern States—its regulations with regard to residence and travel being almost unrestricted.

These statements are made from impartial reports in the hands of the Agents of the Company.

THE SENTINEL.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

MONDAY, JUNE 8, 1868.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—A young man, who has a knowledge of the Hardware business, of good character and steady habits, can get a permanent situation by applying to Jno. Dawson, Wilmington.

The attention of the public is specially directed to the "Notice to Shippers," by the Trace Agent of the Seaboard and Roanoke Railroad Co.

NOTICE—Secretaries of Congressional District Conventions will please forward immediately to R. C. Badger, Esq., Sec'y. of the State Ex Conservative Committee, credentials of the delegates and alternates elect to the National Democratic Convention, unless the same shall have been delivered to the delegates, themselves.

BUCKET CO.—There will be a meeting of the Bucket Company, at the Mayor's Office, on Tuesday evening, at 8½ o'clock.

GOV. SEYMOUR.—We were in error in stating that this distinguished gentlemen would leave on Saturday. He sojourned with us both on Saturday and yesterday, but will take his departure to-day. We are pleased to have had him visit North Carolina, and trust that his recollections of our people will be pleasant. He has certainly made a most favorable impression upon all who have had the gratification of meeting him.

SUPREME COURT.—This tribunal convenes in this City this morning. We learn that the Judges will hear argument, and confer together, as to whether the Court shall go on with the usual, regular business of the Term, or adjourn, in view of the probable speedy inauguration of the new regime.

MEMORIAL CEMETERY.—This is now by far the most lovely and attractive spot in our midst. Every pleasant afternoon it is visited by numbers of our people, and by strangers who may chance to be in the city. Few visit it,—especially of the gentler sex—without leaving a floral tribute on the grave of some one of the many dead heroes who rest within its hallowed precincts.

EXHIBITION.—As quite a large number of strangers are visiting our city at this time, in attendance upon the Federal and Supreme Courts, the Principal of the Institution for the Deaf and Dumb and the Blind has consented to give an exhibition of his pupils, to-night, in the Chapel of the Institution, in order that all who desire may have an opportunity of witnessing the method of instruction, proficiency of the pupils, &c. The exercises will commence at 8 o'clock, and the public are invited to attend.

OUTRAGE.—Some fellow unknown went into the Sunday School room, in the basement of the Baptist Church, in this city, on Friday night last, and in his searches for treasure broke every lock in the Sabbath School library. It is thought that he found nothing that he could profit by, as nothing has been missed.

MARKET.—Our City market is improving. Fresh meats—principally lamb and mutton—are abundant. Spring Chickens (so-called) are beginning to be brought in in considerable numbers, and seasonable vegetables,—beets, snaps, peas, onions, potatoes, &c.—are to be found, each morning, in considerable quantities. We notice some desirable improvements being effected in the interior of the market house, which we will notice, when completed.

NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.—Extensive arrangements are being made in New York, for the accommodation of the Convention in July. "Old Tammany" is being greatly enlarged, and many of the delegations have already procured quarters at the principal Hotels.

"Gov. Seymour makes the Annual Address at the University, Chapel Hill. He was invited as a Copperhead, he was greeted on his way as a Copperhead, and will of course make a Copperhead address. And yet there is no party feeling at the University."—Standard, June 3d.

Now the Senior Class at our University invited the Rev. Mr. Beecher, of Brooklyn, N. Y., to preach their sermon when Gov. Seymour made his address. Had not previous arrangements interfered to prevent Mr. Beecher's accepting the sincere and courteous invitation of the Seniors, a temper as spiteful or manners as coarse as those of the Standard might have dictated the following paragraph:

"Henry Ward Beecher makes the Baccalaureate Sermon at the University, Chapel Hill. He was invited as a Radical; he was greeted on his way as a Radical, and will, of course, make a Radical sermon. And yet there is no party feeling at the University."

Why is not sauce, that is good for the goose, good for the gander also?

U. S. DISTRICT COURTS.—We are pleased to learn that His Honor, Judge Brooks, has determined to hold a United States District Court at Salisbury, on the first Monday in August next, and at Asheville, Buncombe County, on the second Wednesday after the first Monday in August. This arrangement will greatly relieve our Western people from the heavy expense and inconvenience of coming to Raleigh in June, the busiest month of the year with planters.

WILLIE J. PALMER, Esq., Principal of the Institution of the Deaf, the Dumb and the Blind of this city, has been elected a Trustee of Columbian College, at Washington City, of which he is a graduate. The College is a Baptist Institution and under the Presidency of Rev. Dr. Samson, and is in a prosperous condition.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS.—Our thanks are tendered to the Managers for an invitation to attend the Commencement Party of the Henderson Collegiate Institute, on Thursday evening next. We are glad to learn that this school, under the efficient auspices of F. A. Fetter, Esq., is daily growing in prosperity and usefulness.

GEN. ALFRED DOCKERY.—Whatever may be said of the recent course of Gen. Dockery, in his affiliations with Radicalism, (which some have been uncharitable enough to attribute to the old gentleman's desire for office,) he is, at least in most respects, the most respectable and leading member of the party, and deserves better treatment from the Radicals than he has received. It has been charged, we know not with what truth, that Gen. Abbott is responsible for the leaving out of Gen. Dockery's name on the list of persons recommended to Congress as Radical enough for the kind offices of that body in the removal of disabilities. It has, moreover, been stated that this was done to choke off the General as a candidate for the United States Senate. If the Legislature can get any evidence that this is so, we hope it will strongly rebuke such conduct by the election of Gen. Dockery to the U. S. Senate. Radicalism has no man in the State, whose character and position so well fit him for that place as Gen. Dockery.

THE District of Columbia, as the New York World justly observes, is the political laboratory in which the Republican party try their experiments on a small scale before extending them. They first abolished slavery there; then throughout the South. They first gave the negroes the ballot there; then in all the Southern States. The election riot, which is the fruit of their policy in Washington, is the precursor of what will follow elsewhere by the operation of the same causes leading to outbreaks of the same passions.

THE TELEGRAPH agent of the Associated Press in San Francisco gives rather a neat specimen of what the late lamented Artemus Ward used to call "sarkasum." After announcing the wonderful Democratic victory in Oregon, the waggish agent adds:—"The nomination of Grant and Colfax excites great enthusiasm here." Now that is really good for a telegraphic joke.

THE NATIONAL INTELLIGENCER says:—"The doom of Grant and Colfax is written. It cannot be averted. If wisdom prevails at the New York Convention, as we are confident it will do, the Radical ticket will scarcely be recognized as serious candidates in a week afterwards."

AMUSING.—Last Sunday morning, a farmer with his family came into town to church. He was looking around, evidently for some one to seek information from, and, seeing the senior member of the firm of Hecth, Reed & Co., a short distance ahead, he hurried up his team and overtook that enterprising merchant. Straightening himself up in his wagon, he hallooed out, "Hallo, Fred., is it a fact that the President is acquitted?" Fred. looked up and instantly replied, "Yes, sir, and it weighs eight pounds, and is a boy." The farmer said no more, but went on into church, and no doubt, during the whole service, he was wondering how under heavens the President's acquittal "weighs eight pounds and was a boy?"—Iowa Age.

A Washington correspondent of a Democratic paper writes that such are the proceedings now characterizing the American Congress upon the eve of a great political contest, and so damaging must be the result to General Grant, that some of the shrewdest radicals strongly suspect Butler of a purpose to make a shipwreck of Grant's Presidential prospects. He is known to hate Grant with all the intensity of his nature, and would turn upon him at any moment with the venom of the rattlesnake.—Many here say that there is no other way to account for the infamous proceedings in which Butler is now involving his party.

Certain Republican journals are demanding that Judge Chase and Senator Fessenden shall be effaced from our currency issues, and are expending a great deal of breath about the "standing offence" which the faces of these gentlemen are to everybody who use money. None of them, however, have shown their indignation by refusing to receive the notes and pass them for their full value—faces included!

MISSISSIPPI POLITICS.—In the First Congressional District of Mississippi the Democrats have nominated Capt. Charles H. Townsend, a gallant officer of the Federal army during the war, while his Radical opponent is one Wofford, late of the Confederate army. Verily, "times change, and men change with them."

The Chicago platform on the money question reminds one of the old rhyme slightly altered:

> It wires in, and it wires out,
> And still it leaves all folks in doubt
> If H. C. Grant and S. Colfax
> Mean pay in gold or in greenbacks.

THE DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE FOR THE PRESIDENCY.—The States which have instructed for Mr. Pendleton are Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Iowa, Nebraska, Oregon, California, and Kentucky, and he is said to be the first choice of Wisconsin, Minnesota, Maryland, and Tennessee.

And now, after claiming to be the leading watering place in the United States, Chicago, according to the Republican of that city, is to be "the great wool market of the country." The announcement, after the late Convention, is quite superfluous.

Four patriots have already announced their anxiety to take Colfax's Congressional seat. Don't be in a hurry, gentlemen; Colfax will want it!

STATE NEWS.

Gov. Vance has been invited to address the Conservative club of Portsmouth, Va., at an early day.

William Pell Ormond, of Greene Co., a few days since, killed a bear, weighing three hundred pounds, with small squirrel shot.

We learn, from the Wilmington Journal, that several enterprising Virginians, and a few others, having purchased the Dudley mill property, in that city, for the sum of $20,000, are actively preparing for the establishment of works for the manufacture of paper stock from native cane or reed. The machinery requisite for present wants has arrived. It is calculated that this machinery will enable them to "blow out" about fifty tons of the paper stock per day. This Company is connected with a manufactory of paper in Brooklyn, New York, and will for the present merely serve as an auxiliary thereto, simply manufacturing the paper stock for use there.

The Conservative press of the State, without exception so far as we have seen, approve the proposition for an Editorial Convention in this city on the 18th. inst. We take it for granted, therefore, that the Convention will be held, and that it will be well attended. We shall be delighted to see all our brethren of the "quill and scissors" and to confer with them on the duties that lie before us.

Stokes County Court has ratified the County subscription of $100,000 to the North Western N. C. Railroad. I. G. Lash, Esq., was elected financial Railroad Agent for the county.

The People's Press, at Salem, has its fears that the "admission of the State" is not so near at hand as it "had reason to hope it was a few weeks since." Cheer up, faint heart. The Omnibus will be along after awhile.

BLOODY INSTRUCTIONS.—Among the incidents last night in front of the City Hall was a speech made by a colored man from the steps to a large crowd of his compatriots. In the course of it he denounced those colored men who turned traitors to their race by voting the Democratic ticket, and advised his hearers to kill them—"put it to them quietly." The sentiment was loudly applauded with enthusiastic cries of "We will." This is no sensation story—no reportorial fancy sketch. The speech was heard by two gentlemen who have fought for the Republic, and whose names, were we to give them, would be sufficient guarantee of any statement they might make.

We allude to it now simply to show the extent to which the colored people of this city are being inoculated with false ideas. The tragic events we elsewhere record show that false teachings are doing their dangerous work, and a terrible responsibility is on the leaders who are cultivating a spirit of license in the colored population that, if persisted in, will be expiated in tears and blood.

Several colored men were assailed on election day for not voting the Radical ticket. Several have been threatened and one or two beaten since. Such outrages cannot be tolerated, and the arm of the law should be made to fall heavily on the offending parties in order to prevent worse calamities.—Wash. Express, 4th.

Gen. Grant's declaration that he will have no policy but the will of the people to guide him, reminds one of a simular declaration of the great Mr. Pickwick of his policy at the great election at Eatanswill, between the Buffs and the Blues, in which the Hon. Samuel Slumkey was the candidate of the Blues and the Hon. Horatio Fiskin of the Buffs.—"Slumkey forever!" roared the honest and independent.

"Slumkey forever!" echoed Mr. Pickwick, taking off his hat.

"No Fizkin!" roared the crowd. "Certainly not!" shouted Mr. Pickwick.

"Who is Slumkey?" whispered Mr. Tupman.

"I don't know," replied Mr. Pickwick.—"Hush! don't ask any questions; its always best to do what the mob do on these occasions."

"But suppose there are two mobs," suggested Mr. Snodgrass.

"Shout with the largest," replied Mr. Pickwick.

Volumes could not have said more.—N. Y. World.

AGGRIEVED SAINTS.—Foster Blodgett, a great light of Radicalism in Georgia, who stands indicted in the United States District Court there of perjury, was a swift witness against the President in the late impeachment fiasco, and went to the Chicago Convention in the role of a persecuted Southern loyalist delegate, was laid by the heels in that city on the charge of one Changle, a citizen thereof, who in 1861 was beaten and banged and kicked and spit on and half-hanged by the loil Blodgett and a mob headed by him, in the City of Augusta, Georgia, whereof B. was then Chief of Police, and still, so far as information goes, is in some Chicagoite jail.

Also among the saints who came up to that Convention from the persecuting South was a pure soul, named in the flesh McConnell, a carpet-bag delegate from Louisiana, whither he emigrated, led by the savor of flesh pots, from Illinois. Him, too, were the sons of Zeruiah too many for. An old man had him arrested for stealing $750 from him at Matteson, Illinois, and at last accounts he wept in prison bar. And thus

> "One by one the roses fall."
> N. Y. World.

The Radicals, although they claim to have all the religion, and all the morality, are led by men who seem to delight in deriding sacred things and revel in blasphemy and profanity. Wade is a notorious vainuser of the Maker's name. Thad Stevens, in Congress, called our Saviour a "single individual," and Carl Schurz, the temporary Chairman of the Chicago Convention, and a leader in the Radical Israel, is the Red Republican infidel who, in a public speech made a few years since in St. Louis, spoke of the Almighty as "the ideal gentleman beyond the skies, called by some people God!" All this may be "highly moral" from a Radical point of view; but it is frightful, nevertheless, to put power into the hands of such profane and godless agitators.

The Alexandria Gazette of Monday says that the diminished number of colored men on the streets that day was very noticeable, and that the rumor was that the absentees had gone to Washington to exercise the rights of freemen in the election in progress in that city.

Mr. Washburne is said to be much gratified by the compliments showered upon his letter accepting the Chicago nomination.

Our Midnight Dispatches.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, June 6, P. M.

The Senate, on yesterday, in Executive session, rejected Gen. Geo. B. McClellan, as Minister to England, and confirmed Alfred T. Lacy, as Collector for the first Revenue District of Louisiana.

The Conference Committee on Arkansas agreed to the original House bill, with the additional stipulation that any alteration in said Constitution, prospective in its effects, may be made in regard to the time and place of the residence of voters.

The conference report on the Arkansas admission bill will certainly be adopted in the House, on Monday.

But little interest is taken in the Tax Bill. It is the positive opinion that it will not pass this session, though a special bill, reducing the Whiskey and modifying the Tobacco Tax, is regarded certain.

Schenck's Bill, which he regarded a complete machine—one section depending upon another, and inoperative unless adopted as a whole,—is already torn to pieces. Its consideration will probably end by striking out the enacting clause.

Funding the seven thirties delays the debt statement. It will show a reduction of seven millions.

The Customs for the week ending the thirtieth, were nearly three millions.

The Corruption Committee don't seem disposed to disturb Woolley in his prison.

Gorham has announced that he will make no changes in the Secretarys office.

Sherman's bill relative to United States notes legalizes and makes valid gold contracts, which may be made hereafter. An amendment striking out the word "hereafter" was lost, and the bill passed the Senate, on yesterday.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, June 6, P. M.

SENATE.—Gorham was sworn in as Secretary.

The Omnibus admission bill was resumed, and an amendment including Alabama was discussed all day.

Mr. Morton said that he had changed his mind about the danger of the defeat of the bill, by including Alabama, and should vote for the amendment.

The debate was scattering—mostly confined to the record of opposing Senators on negro capacity. Without a vote on the Amendment, the Senate adjourned.

The conference report regarding Arkansas, and after Executive Session, adjourned.

HOUSE.—After unimportant business, the Tax Bill was resumed, and considerable progress made, but the attendance was slim and all important points were held in abeyance.

The Conference Committee on Arkansas reported, but, on a motion to table the report, no quorum was voted and the House adjourned to Monday.

North Carolina Mining Property for Sale in Baltimore.
VERY VALUABLE GOLD MINE AT AUCTION.
WILL BE SOLD, BY VIRTUE OF AUTHORITY vested in the undersigned, at the Exchange Sales Rooms, in the City of Baltimore on Tuesday, the 23d day of June, 1868, at one o'clock, P. M., all the property of the Baltimore & Montgomery Mining Company, better known as the STEELE GOLD MINE,
on the Uharie river, in Montgomery county, North Carolina, containing about 700 ACRES OF LAND, with all its equipments, consisting of two Steam Engines, one of 10 horse and the other of 25 horse power, Pumps, two round Buddles, 16 feet diameter, 3 Washers with Rockery and Sluice-boxes, buildings for office, store and superintendent, a large Boarding-house, Barn, Stables, Blacksmith Shop, and about 20 small houses for miners, &c.
This mine is known as one of the most valuable in this country, and sufficiently developed, to a depth of upwards of 150 feet, so as to justify extensive operations; the vein is composed of argillaceous slate and forms an auriferous bed of from 10 to 12 feet in thickness, carrying very rich strong veins of free gold in its centre.
Thorough and reliable examinations, and reports have been made by Prof. Chas. T. Jackson, of Boston Prof. Genth, of Philadelphia, and the late Prof. Hauser, who all agree and represent this mining property of great intrinsic value.
Terms to be made known on the day of sale.

LITTLE JERRY, THE MILLER.

BY JOHN G. SAXE.

Beneath the hill you may see the mill
Of wasting wood and crumbling stone;
The wheel is dripping and clattering still,
But Jerry, the miller, is dead and gone.

Year after year, early and late,
Alike in Summer and Winter weather,
He pecked the stones and balked the gate,
And mill and miller grew old together.

"Little Jerry!" 'twas all the same—
They loved him well who called him so;
And whether he'd ever another name,
Nobody ever seemed to know.

'Twas "Little Jerry, come grind my rye!"
And "Little Jerry, come grind my wheat!"
And "Little Jerry" was still the cry,
From matron bold and maiden sweet.

'Twas "Little Jerry" on every tongue,
And thus the simple truth was told:
For Jerry was little when he was young,
And he was little when he was old.

But what in size he chanced to lack,
Jerry made up in being strong;
I've seen a sack upon his back,
As thick as the miller and quite as long.

Always busy and always merry,
Always doing his very best,
A notable wag was little Jerry,
Who uttered well his standing jest:

"When will you grind my corn, I say?"
"Nay," quoth Jerry, "you needn't scold;
Just leave your grist for half a day,
And never fear but you'll be toll'd."

How Jerry lived is known to fame,
But how he died there's none may know;
One autumn day the rumor came—
"The brook and Jerry are very low."

And then 'twas whispered mournfully,
The leash had come and she was dead;
And all the neighbors flocked to see
"Poor little Jerry" was all they said

They laid him in his earthly bed—
His miller's coat his only shroud—
"Dust to dust," the parson said,
And all the people wept aloud.

For he had shunned the deadly sin,
And not a grain of over-toll
Had ever popped into his bin,
To weigh upon his parting soul.

Beneath the hill there stands the mill
Of wasting wood and crumbling stone;
The wheel is dripping and clattering still,
But, Jerry, the miller, is dead and gone.

TO LAND OWNERS.

HAVING BEEN APPOINTED, BY THE AMERICAN AGRICULTURAL AND MINERAL LAND COMPANY, Agent for all that part of North Carolina lying east of and including Catawba County, I am authorized to say, to any person or persons having 2,000 acres in one body, partially cleared and near a Rail Road, that if they will subdivide their lands the Company will purchase alternate lots at their assessed value for taxation or as ascertained by two disinterested parties, paying for the same in the Company's stock—the Company obligating itself to place a white settler on every 200 acres, so acquired, within three years, or, failing to do so, such land unsettled to revert to the original owner; the owner to retain possession until the land is settled.

The object of this system is to bring into the State an industrious and thrifty population and to enhance the value of our lands. It has been adopted in other States and is said to be working finely.

This Company was chartered by our Legislature of 1866. Land owners will please address me for particulars at Reidsville, N. C.

CHEAP FOR CASH.

LOOK OUT FOR A. CREECH!

JUST RECEIVED, $15,000 worth of new Spring and Summer Goods, which must, at all events, be sold within the next sixty days, if possible—If you want

LADIES' DRESS GOODS,

I have a beautiful assortment of the various styles and latest importations. It is a well known fact, and universally admitted, that to buy your goods. This can be, and is substantiated daily, by hundreds.

CREECH'S IS THE PLACE

If you want Cassimeres, Tweeds, Kentucky Jeans, Cotton and Linen Goods of all descriptions, and suitable for gentlemen, boys and children's wear, CREECH'S is the place to look for them.

At Low Prices,

Why, you may go up one side of Fayetteville Street and down the other; yes, and then the cross streets, and you will be bound to come to the conclusion that CREECH'S is the place you had better do your trading. If you want

LADIES' BONNETS,

trimmed or untrimmed, CREECH'S is the place to get them. If you wish to purchase any style of

LADIES, MISSES or CHILDREN'S HATS, don't buy until you have seen CREECH'S, or you will miss a great bargain, as he has one of the largest and most beautiful assortments in the City. If you are looking for

MEN'S, BOYS' AND CHILDREN'S HATS,

Ladies, Men and Children's Shoes, why if you step at Creech's you will surely be suited in style, quality and price.

I told the people, some time ago, that there was no House in the City that could or would sell goods cheaper than I, and now I intend to keep my word. I said then what I meant, and now mean what I say. So don't fail to come to CREECH'S, on E. Smith's corner.

NEW ARRANGEMENT

FOR THE

SENTINEL.

Published in the City of Raleigh, N. C.,

Daily, Semi Weekly and Weekly.

William E. Pell, } Editors.
Seaton Gales, }

In view of the scarcity of money, and the severity of the times, the Proprietor of the SENTINEL has determined to reduce the terms of the paper, to commence after the 21st. DECEMBER, next, and to make such improvements in its general character as will commend it to the patronage of an enlightened public.

In POLITICS it will be thoroughly Conservative, advocating, at all times:

A strict observance of the Constitution of the United States, and the harmonious Union of equal States;

Obedience to law and the enforcement of order;

The supremacy of the civil over the military, in time of peace;

The equality of the three co-ordinate branches of the government;

The sovereignty of the States over their own internal affairs, in strict conformity to the Constitution;

The maintenance of freedom and justice to all, without distinction of color, but the supremacy of the white race as the governing class;

Opposition to Radicalism in all its phases.

As a NEWS journal, it shall be equal to any.—The principal markets will be regularly published.

Its LITERARY character shall be maintained and improved, by contributions from our best writers.

Finally, the SENTINEL will seek to be the special promoter of the educational, moral and economical interests of the people of North Carolina.

Terms:

Daily Sentinel, for one ye ar	$8 00

All subscriptions strictly cash in advance.

As an advertising medium, the SENTINEL is equal to any in the State. Terms moderate.

☞ We ask every Conservative in the State to become our Agent to extend the circulation of the SENTINEL. The events of 1868 will be exciting and important. The WEEKLY SENTINEL should be in the hands of the great body of the people—The terms are now so low that every one will be able to pay for it.

GENERAL REMARKS.

Revenue stalips may be used indiscriminately upon any of the matters or things enumerated in schedule B., except proprietary and playing card stamps, for which a special use has been provided.

Postage stamps cannot be used in payment of the duty chargeable on instruments.

It is the duty of the maker of an instrument to affix and cancel the stamp thereon. If he neglects to do so, the party for whom it is made, may stamp it before it is used; and, if used after the 30th of July, 1864, and used without a stamp, it cannot afterwards be effectually stamped. Any failure upon the part of the maker of an instrument, to appropriately stamp it, renders him liable to a penalty of two hundred dollars.

Suits are commenced in many States by other process than writ, viz: summons, warrants, publication, &c., in which case these, as the original process, severally require stamps.

Writs of seire facias are subject to stamp duty as original process.

The jurat of an affidavit, taken before a Justice of the Peace, Notary Public, or other officer duly authorized to take affidavits, is held to be a certificate, and is subject to a stamp duty of five cents, except when taken in suits of legal proceedings.

Certificates of loan in which there shall appear any printed or written evidence of an amount of money to be paid on demand or at any time designated, are subject to stamp duty as Promissory Notes.

The assignment of a mortgage is subject to the same duty as that imposed upon the original instrument; that is to say, for every sum of five hundred dollars, or any fractional part thereof, of the amount secured by the mortgage, at time of its assignment, there must be affixed a stamp or stamps, denoting a duty of five cents.

When two or more persons join in the execution of an instrument, the stamps to which this instrument is liable, under the law, may be affixed and cancelled by one of the parties.

In conveyance of real estate, the law provides that the stamp affixed must answer to the value of the estate or interest conveyed.

No stamp is required on warrant of attorney accompanying a bond or note, when such bond or note has affixed thereto the stamp or stamps denoting the duty required, and whenever any bond or note is secured by mortgage, but one stamp duty is required on such papers, such stamp duty being the highest rates required for such instruments, or either of them. In such case a note or memorandum of the value or denomination of the stamp affixed should be made upon the margin or in the acknowledgment of the instrument which is not stamped.
